PLAINTIFF'S SECOND NOTICE OF DEPOSITION OF OPENET TELECOM, LTD.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that plaintiff Amdocs (Israel) Ltd. ("Amdocs"), by and through their attorneys, will take the deposition upon oral examination of Openet Telecom, Ltd. ("Openet") pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, commencing at 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, March 26, 2011, at the offices of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP, 1875 Pennsylvania Ave NW, Washington, DC 20006, or at such other time and place as agreed by counsel. The testimony shall be before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths. Testimony shall be recorded by stenographic means, and will also be videotaped.

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(b)(6), Openet is required to produce one or more officers, directors, managing agents, or other persons who are designated and consent to testify on its behalf as to each of the subject matters set forth in Schedule A, attached hereto. The deposition will proceed in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and will continue from day to day until completed, unless otherwise agreed.

Openet is requested to identify in writing to Amdocs, on or before Tuesday, January 18, 2011, the one or more officers, directors, managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf and the subject matters on which each person will testify. You are invited to attend and cross-examine.

SCHEDULE A

Definitions

1. The term document as used in the Notice is synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to this term as used in Fed.R.Civ.P. 34(a) and includes, without limitation, tangible things and any information-containing paper or other medium or materials, whether handwritten, printed, recorded, filmed, or produced by any other mechanical, chemical, or electronic process, whether or not asserted to be privileged or immune from discovery, and whether a draft, original, or copy, including any notes or marginal notations appearing on any document, including self-stick removable notes.

2. "Openet," "You," and "Your" mean and refer to Openet Telecom, Inc., and each of its predecessors, present or former parents, subsidiaries, affiliated or controlled companies or joint ventures, their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants and any other person who acted on or purported to act on their or any of their behalf.

3. "XACCT" means XACCT Technologies, Ltd., and each of its predecessors, present or former parents, subsidiaries, affiliated or controlled companies or joint ventures, their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants and any other person who acted on or purported to act on their or any of their behalf.

4. “Amdocs” means Amdocs (Israel), Ltd., and each of its predecessors, present or former parents, subsidiaries, affiliated or controlled companies or joint ventures, their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants and any other person who acted on or purported to act on their or any of their behalf.

5. “Patents-in-suit” means any or all of United States Patent Nos. 6,836,797 (“the ‘797 patent”), 7,631,065 (“the ‘065 patent”), 6,947,984 (“‘984 patent”) and 7,412,510 (“‘510 patent”).

6. “Accused Openet Products” means any or all of the products sold or offered for sale by or licensed or offered for license by Openet in the United States which may be used or licensed to use to collect, process, generate, and/or mediate data streams from heterogeneous network elements in a network system, including without limitation, products marketed and/or sold and/or licensed under the names FusionWorks, FusionWorks Convergent Mediation, Convergent Charging, Network Edge Rating, Policy Manager, and/or any other product made by or for, used, or sold, or offered for sale, or licensed or offered for license by Openet which has substantially the same structure or operates in substantially the same way.

7. “And” and “or” should be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of the discovery request all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.

Subjects of Examination

1. Openet’s knowledge, notice, and/or consideration of the ‘510 and ‘984 patents, and the factual basis for Openet’s contentions, and any advice or opinions of counsel which Openet has received, that (1) the Accused Openet Products do not infringe the claims of the ‘510 and/or '984 patents and/or (2) the claims of the '510 and '984 patents are invalid and/or unenforceable, and any efforts undertaken by Openet to avoid infringement of the patents-in-suit.

2. The factual basis for Openet's contention that any infringement by Openet of the '510 and '984 patents has not been willful.

3. Each Data Stream Decoder (DSD) Rule¹ written by Openet for each of its U.S. customers, including but not limited to the function, purpose, and operation of each such Rule, the date on which the Rule was written and implemented for each customer, and the contract or other agreement pursuant to which each such Rule was written.

4. Each Data Stream Decoder (DSD) Rule implemented by each of Openet's U.S. customers and written by an entity other than Openet, including but not limited to the function, purpose, and operation of each such Rule, the date on which the Rule was written for each customer, and all assistance provided by Openet in furtherance of the writing or implementation of each such Rule.

5. Instruction and training provided by Openet to its customers in the United States relating to the Accused Openet Products.

Openet's agreements with its U.S. Customers, including but not limited to an identification of each such agreements, the nature of each such agreement, the services provided by Openet under each such agreement, and the payments due to and received by Openet under each such agreement.
